Consent and Assumption of Risk Rock Climbing Wall

I recognize and am fully aware of the risks associated with Rock Wall Climbing and Rappelling. This sport has inherent risks associated with it and I knowingly and intelligently assume these risks of harm and/or bodily injury to me or my child/ward, which may arise from participation in this sport. Potentially serious falls from a height of up to forty (40) feet are possible in the event of equipment failure. Bodily harm, serious injury or even death may result as an inherent risk in the sport of wall climbing and rappelling.

I, _____,
Printed Name (Adult Camper, Parent, Staff Member)

hereby give consent for myself/my child, _____, Printed Name (Camper Name if Under 18)

to engage in the sport of Rock Wall Climbing (climbing up a man-made rock wall structure while anchored by a rope and climbing gear) and rappelling (lowering ones self on anchored ropes with rappel gear). I understand that the camp has a rock climbing wall on its campus, which is operated by qualified, experienced and trained staff members. No one may use this climbing wall without the supervision of qualified and trained staff.

Understanding this, I hereby accept full liability for any bodily harm the I, or my child may sustain while engaging in the sport of climbing. I hereby release Camp Winnekeag, the Southern New England Conference and its employees and affiliates of any and all liability of death or injury resulting from my, or my child's participation in the sport of rock wall climbing. Climbing staff and instructors possess current First Aid and CPR certification. Climbing and rappelling instructors are experienced and certified. Instructors are able to assess and identify established climbing routes for varying levels of ability.

I knowingly and intelligently assume all risks for me or my child to participate and engage in the sport of rock wall climbing and rappelling as indicated by my signature below. I have read the contents of this form and am in agreement with it. I agree to follow the safety instructions given by staff members in charge of the climbing wall. All climbers are required to wear a camp-issued climbing harness and rock-climbing helmet.
