

Cranbrook Day Camp

The atmosphere at camp was pure energy and fun as the highly anticipated, totally terrific counselor basketball challenge capped off week seven. Our final week will be full of excitement and entertainment as the campers head to the Greek Theater for a show, check out the exhibits at the Institute of Science, and view "Tales of a Time Traveler" at the Planetarium. And, of course, the summer wouldn't be complete without one last giant slip-n-slide and barbecue bash! From everyone at Cranbrook Day Camp and inside the walls of the Boys Middle School, we thank you for entrusting us and allowing us to help your child make new friends and lasting memories. Wishing you a fantastic end to your summer and a wonderful school year.

With Gratitude,
CDC Staff
