This Week at STEM:

Art and science meet as campers explore movement, forces, and energy through design and creation during this exciting, hands-on inaugural week.

Looking Ahead:

Week 2: EcoDetectives

Campers become detectives and storytellers as they spend the week learning about ecosystems and the science of the natural world to get to the bottom of a series of strange events in their fictitious city.

Staff Spotlight:

Eric

STEM Office Administrator!

Returning families may have noticed a different voice on the STEM Camp phone during week 1. Our Office Admin, Eric, was on a cruise with his family! Eric will be back at STEM camp starting in Week 2!

Eric is in his THIRD camp season as STEM office administrator. He is a middle and high school theology teacher during the school year, enjoys Tiger baseball, and has three kids at home. Eric graduated from Madonna University and St. Joseph's College of Maine.

Welcome back Eric!
